

The React Lifecycle

When a react component gets created (by the browser) and then re renders or changes, it follows a series of steps in order. This is the lifecycle. A diagram of it is as follows:

Basically the three steps:

Mount:

- Happens when the component is displayed on screen.

Update:

- Happens when a part of the component is updated.

Dismount:

- Happens when the component is destroyed or put off screen.